New Construction: Adult Mental Health Facility
Eastern State Hospital
Williamsburg, Virginia
May 20, 2007

The Department of Mental Health, Mental Retardation and Substance Abuse Services has entered into a Comprehensive Agreement under the Public-Private Education and Infrastructure Act of 2002 (PPEA) for the construction of a new, replacement 150-bed adult mental health facility on the grounds of the existing Eastern State Hospital located at 4601 Ironbound Road in Williamsburg, Virginia. The work of this project will demolish Buildings No. 9, 10, 11 and 12 between August and December, 2007. Further, Building No. 1 will be demolished between June and July, 2008. Later, after the new building is constructed, Buildings No. 2, 4, 14/15 will be demolished between February and July 2010. This Public Notice constitutes notice to adjoining and affected property owners. Questions regarding this Public Notice should be submitted in writing to DMHMRSAS, Office of Architectural & Engineering Services, P. O. Box 1797, Richmond, Virginia 23218-1797 within 45 consecutive calendar days of the publication of this Notice.
